

An Italian evening, in your own home.

Private Italian dining · Central & north London

I'm Julia, an Italian chef from Modena. I arrive at your home, cook everything fresh in your kitchen, serve each course to your table, and leave the kitchen spotless. Not catering, not trays — an evening.

HOW THE EVENING UNFOLDS

01

The welcome aperitivo

Your guests arrive to a drink and warm Italian bites while I cook. Included in every evening, never an extra.

02

Dinner, served

Four courses, plated and served to the table at your pace. You stay in your seat with your guests.

03

A clean kitchen

I clear, wash and tidy before I go. Your evening ends with good company, not the washing-up.
